

List of The Thekkady Tourist Places

Kerala is a prime example of unadulterated natural beauty and one of God's finest works. It's because of this that the area is referred to as God's Own Country. Kerala is regarded by many as one of God's best creations. Kerala is home to Thekkady, one of the hidden gems, in addition to backwaters, beautiful green forests, and so much more. You should think about visiting the Thekkady tourist attractions.

You should be aware of the best weekend getaway destinations if you're looking for one from Thekkady Tourist Places to Munnar. One of those Indian locations that is very removed from the bustle of the metropolis is Thekkady.

Would you like to go to the lush forest? Or isolated villages? or refuges for animals? Indeed, Kerala is home to several such tourist destinations. You will also have the chance to learn more about tigers in addition to elephants.

Many travel books claim that once you get in God's Own Country's Thekkady, you will find everything you're seeking for. You can also take in the sights of threatened species while you're here. Wonderful, isn't it? So, start exploring some of Thekkady's top tourist attractions.

Thekkady Tourist Places

There are many different tourist destinations and activities in Thekkady. There are many unexpected natural sights you may encounter on your trip from Thekkady to Munnar. So, here are a few locations that you might like to see. Visit Fun Over 50 Holidays for additional details on the Fun Over 50 tours.

Murikkady

One of the top Thekkady parks is this one. It is frequently praised as one of Thekkady's most energising locations, making it one of the best places to visit. Murikkady is one of those locations that you shouldn't miss, whether you're planning a quick weekend escape or searching for the ideal picnic location.

Not to be overlooked is the unusual sight of verdant forests. The region is surrounded by a long chain of hills. Your physical and mental wellbeing will both benefit from the surrounding fresh air. There are no time limits on when you can visit Murikkady. As a result, you are free to visit the location whenever you like.

Park National Periyar

One of the most well-known parks in Thekkady, Periyar National Park spans 357 square kilometres of territory.

Periyar National Park is one of the best places to visit because of the area's unique flora and fauna. The tiger and elephant reserves in Periyar National Park merit your consideration.

In addition to its distinctive setting, Periyar National Park is the location of cardamom plantations. As a result, visitors will undoubtedly be in awe of the location's splendour. The location is ideal for adventure seekers in addition to animal lovers. Consider visiting Periyar National Park and participating in activities like trekking, rafting, and safari if you want to give your adrenaline a kick.

The Periyar National Park is traversed by the rivers Pamba and Periyar, making it a breathtaking location. It would be beneficial if you thought about going to the location between the hours of 7 and 9 every day as planned.

Vandanmedu Thekkady Tourist Places

Vandanmedu, located in Idukki, Kerala, is a true delight for those who enjoy the outdoors. Consider visiting Vandanmedu if you want to indulge in the splendour of luxuriant green forests. Additionally, this is where the annual cardamom auction is place. As a result, travellers from all over the world congregate in Vandanmedu at this time to buy premium cardamom.

The fact that you may purchase rare and distinctive cardamoms, which are highly prized on both the domestic and international markets, is one of the best things about visiting Vandanmedu during this time. Vandanmedu is one of the best pleasures if you enjoy the aroma of spices.

One of the top destinations to see in Thekkady is Pandikuzhi Pandikuzhi. Stunning waterfalls, tall slopes, and lush forests may be found in this hill station. One of the top Thekkady tourist destinations is Pandikuzhi, which is located on the border between Tamil Nadu and Chellarkovil.

You will be removed from the hectic city life because of the area's lush green trees. Additionally, after you arrive, Pandikuzhi will encourage you to experience the area's peace and quiet. Pandikuzhi also supports a variety of flora and wildlife.

One of the nicest getaways available is this one. You'll want to stay at Pandikuzhi for a very long period because of its pristine surroundings.