

Know About george floyd criminal history and His Death

George Floyd was no stranger to the criminal justice system, with a lengthy criminal history that spanned more than a decade. While his death made headlines all around the globe, some news reports also published george floyd criminal history. Continue reading to find out more.

george floyd criminal history

Floyd's criminal record began in 2002, when he was arrested in Houston, Texas for possession of marijuana. He was sentenced to a year of probation and was required to complete community service.

In 2007, Floyd was arrested again in Houston for theft. He was sentenced to two years of probation and was required to complete community service.

According to george floyd criminal history, he was arrested for assault causing bodily injury in 2009. He was sentenced to four years in prison, but was released after three years. Also he was charged with terroristic threats and assault in the fifth degree in Hennepin County, Minnesota in the same year. The charges were eventually dismissed.

In 2011, Floyd was arrested in Hennepin County on suspicion of obstructing the legal process and fleeing police. He was sentenced to two days in jail and was required to complete community service.

In 2012, Floyd was arrested in Hennepin County on suspicion of domestic assault. He was sentenced to six months of probation and was required to complete community service.

Another notable thing in george floyd criminal history happened in 2013. Floyd was arrested in Hennepin County on suspicion of theft. He was sentenced to one year of probation and was required to complete community service.

In 2016, Floyd was arrested in Hennepin County on suspicion of drug possession. He was sentenced to four days in jail and was required to complete community service.

In 2017, Floyd was arrested in Hennepin County on suspicion of obstructing legal process and fleeing police. He was sentenced to one year of probation and was required to complete community service.

In 2014, Floyd was arrested again in Houston on a charge of aggravated robbery with a deadly weapon. He was sentenced to five years in prison and was released in 2018.

In 2019, Floyd was arrested in Minneapolis for theft from a store. He was sentenced to five years of probation, which he was still serving at the time of his death.

The george floyd criminal history also includes several arrests for driving while intoxicated (DWI) and driving without a license. He was arrested in 2017 for DWI, but the charges were dismissed. In addition to his arrests, Floyd had several run-ins with the law in the years before his death.

Death of George Floyd

On May 25, 2020, George Floyd was killed in Minneapolis, Minnesota, when a white police officer knelt on his neck for over eight minutes. The video of the incident quickly went viral, and people around the world expressed outrage and sadness at the death of Floyd.

The police officer involved in the incident, Derek Chauvin, was arrested and charged with second-degree murder and second-degree manslaughter. The three other officers present at the scene were also fired, but they have not been charged.

The death of George Floyd has sparked widespread protests, both in the United States and around the world. People have taken to the streets in cities like New York, Los Angeles, London, and Paris to demand justice.

Overview

Floyd's criminal record is not uncharacteristic of many offenders who have gone through the criminal justice system. The george floyd criminal history is a reflection of the systemic issues that lead to over-policing and mass incarceration of people of colour in the United States.