As of my last knowledge update in January 2022, the process for applying for a U.S. visa, including for citizens of Belarus, involves several steps. However, keep in mind that immigration policies and procedures can change, so it's crucial to check the official website of the U.S. Department of State or consult with the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in Belarus for the most up-to-date information. Here are the general steps for applying for a U.S. visa online:

Complete the Nonimmigrant Visa Electronic Application (DS-160):

Visit the Consular Electronic Usa Visa Application online (CEAC) website to fill out the DS-160 form.

Upload a passport-sized photo as per the specifications.

Pay the Visa Application Fee:

Pay the non-refundable visa application fee. The payment methods and fee amounts may vary depending on the visa type.

Schedule a Visa Appointment:

After paying the fee, you can schedule an appointment for a visa interview at the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in Belarus. Appointment scheduling is typically done through the U.S. Visa Information and Appointment Services website.

Visit the U.S. Embassy or Consulate:

Attend the visa interview at the scheduled time. Bring all required documents, including the DS-160 confirmation page, visa appointment confirmation, passport, photo, and any supporting documents relevant to your visa category.

Biometric Data Collection:

Depending on the visa type, you may be required to provide biometric information, such as fingerprints, at the Visa Application Center.

Wait for Visa Processing:

After the interview, the consular officer will decide whether to approve or deny your visa. Processing times may vary, so be patient.

Collect Your Passport:

If your visa is approved, you will be instructed on how to collect your passport with the visa stamp.
